EFI Announces Corporate Partnership with Omni Décor to Become North American Distributor

Offering Exquisite, European and Environmentally-Certified Contemporary Satin-Finished Glass

KERNERSVILLE, N.C., April 15, 2010 – EFI, an industry leader in designing and manufacturing original glass and aluminum interior products, announces its partnership with Italy-based Omni Décor to distribute its exclusive, contemporary, and ISO 14001 environmentally-certified (100% recyclable) etched satin-finish glass to the North American market.

"We're excited about partnering with Omni Décor to bring such exquisite high quality satin-finish glass to our North American customers," says Kevin Moore, president of EFI. "Customizable in nearly any dimension, pattern, color, and quantity, the versatility and aesthetics of this glass, which includes a proprietary etching process that minimizes the environmental impact, makes it ideal for interior spaces, furniture components, and as an exterior treatment."

"As a result of Omni Décor's state-of-the-art technology and design leadership, its glass products are hallmarks of some of the world's leading architectural masterpieces, including the Dubai airport," continues Moore.

Omni Décor glass has a wide range of residential and commercial applications:

Residential: kitchen cabinet doors and drawers, countertops, islands, pantry doors, table tops, tiles and backsplashes, room dividers, closet doors, architectural doors and walls, and interior and exterior surface wall coverings.

Commercial: room dividers, architectural walls, office partitions, sliding walls, conference tables, retail displays, and exterior facades.

"Practical, light, elegant, perfectly lapped, homogenous, and resistant to atmospheric agents, smog and stains, Omni Décor's satin-finished glass is easy to maintain, and the distinctive light and color features are extremely durable," adds Brent Moore, vice president of EFI.

From the careful selection of raw materials to the management of orders and deliveries, EFI works with Omni Décor to seamlessly deliver exquisite architectural products within weeks to North American customers. Select patterns and color options are stocked in the U.S. with 2 to 3 week lead times while special orders typically take less than 2 months.
